Travis Howells, LPC

Information and Informed Consent

Who I Am

Travis Howells, LPC offers professional psychotherapy and counseling services informed by evidence based practices at a master's level. I serve adults and adolescents. It is your right to have knowledge of my professional qualifications and you have been provided with a disclosure of my professional information.

Confidentiality

I take great care with all oral and written client information. Your information will be kept private in accordance with standards set by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). If cell phones are taken into the session they may not be used to record information without the consent of the therapist and client (and/or legal guardian).

There are legal requirements that specify certain conditions in which I would be required to disclose your name and/or your treatment. The requirements are:

- If I believe that you are a danger to yourself or others
- If I become aware of any involvement that you have in the abuse of any minors, elderly, or disabled individuals.
- If I receive an order from a judge to release your records.

Fees

The current fee for counseling services is $150 per 45-60-minute individual or family therapy session and $75 per half-hour session. Therapy fees for self pay clients without insurance are reduced to $100 per hour. Fees for court related activities for all clients, including but not limited to; testimony given, waiting to testify, and preparing relevant records are $300 per hour. Changes in session time should be discussed with me in advance to assure availability. Fees may also apply to the preparation of assessment reports, telephone conversations, consultations, or meetings you have authorized as part of your counseling process. If you wish to use insurance benefits you are responsible to verify both in and out of network benefits, and obtain deductible and copay information. Most insurances take 6-8 weeks to process claims. Payment or copay is generally expected at the end of the session.

Client Responsibility

If you cannot attend a scheduled session, please give me a notice of cancellation by phone, text, or email, prior to the beginning of your appointment time. After multiple no-shows or cancellations, you may be subject to termination of services. Missed appointments without notice by the time the session starts will be charged to your account at full cost. Please be aware that insurance companies do not pay for missed appointments.

Supervision or Other Affiliations

Occasionally it may be necessary or helpful for your therapist so seek additional supervision or consultation regarding your treatment. During supervision and consultation your confidentiality will be maintained. The purpose of discussing your services will be to improve the care you receive.

Notice of Privacy Practices

You have the right to read the notice of privacy practices before deciding to sign this consent form. You may obtain a copy of the notice of privacy practices form at any time by request. You have the right to revoke this consent at any time with a written request.

Informed Consent

I understand that counseling may involve discussing relationship, emotional, psychological, and or spiritual issues that may be distressing. I understand that learning new skills to apply in real life can take time and effort. I do understand that this process is intended to help me. I understand that there is no perfect "cure" for relationship, emotional, psychological, and or spiritual issues. I understand my role as a client which includes honest participation in all sessions, complete homework assignments, and demonstrate a willingness to change. I have been given a fee schedule and I agree to be responsible for all fees associated with my counseling. I am aware that Travis Howells, LPC is a counseling service and that there are alternative treatment options available to me. I have read the client's rights and privacy practices. I will not use alcohol or drugs (legal or illegal) prior to counseling sessions. I understand that my participation is voluntary and I may leave at any time. I agree that I will discuss my intention to end services prior to ending them.

Signing this document signifies that you give consent for Travis Howells, LPC to administer counseling services as necessary. This signed document shall remain in effect until it is revoked in writing. You acknowledge that you are responsible for all charges generated for services rendered.
